

Reid confirms that there will be no Senate action on extenders until after elections.

Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid (D-NV) has confirmed that there will be no actions on the extender package in the Senate until after the midterm election. He has refused to consider any amendments not directly related to the extenders. Senate Republicans had previously blocked action on the extender bill because they were not allowed to offer such amendments.

© 2014 Thomson Reuters/Tax & Accounting. All Rights Reserved.

decoria • maichel • teague

P | 509.535.3503

F | 509.535.9391

7307 N. Division, Suite 222

Spokane, WA 99208

www.dm-t.com